

I am not in favor of the FCC expanding LPFM service to take priority over current FM translator service. I am an avid K-Love listener and contributor. It plays wholesome Christian music that my wife and kids can listen to without the vulgar lyrics of most radio station today. It serves a huge group of listeners and benefits the public as well.